“COURT CALLS CANADA’S TREATMENT OF ‘SAFE COUNTRY REFUGEES’ UNCONSTITUTIONAL”

Toronto Star Fri. March 22 Nicholas Keung

“Justice Boswell declared it is “unconstitutional” for Ottawa to treat refugees from so-called “safe countries” differently from other refugees when it comes to being assessed to determine if deporting them would put them in danger. “ Click here

REFUGEE RIGHTS DAY celebrated Canada April 04

An opportunity to bring attention to the advances made in the protection of refugee rights in Canada as a result of the Singh Decision. It is also a time to learn about the threats to those rights. Anniversary of Supreme Court 1985 Singh decision.

The Court decided that ‘everyone’ includes refugee claimants in the sentence: ‘Everyone has the right to life, liberty and security of the person and the right not to be deprived thereof. Refugee claimants are therefore entitled to an oral hearing, in accordance with the principles of fundamental justice and international law.

CONGRATULATIONS SELENE FLOREAN!

Becoming Neighbours has been blessed with the presence of children of newly arrived newcomers to Canada. One such newcomer has been Olga Florean with her two daughters: Metzery and Selene: active participants in Latina Women's Circle. With your help, Becoming Neighbours sponsored Selene to attend

Camp Micah, a leadership development camp for Justice and Peace.

Presently in her third year at McMaster University, Selene has recently received two awards: The Rudy Heinzl Award of Excellence for the Dedication to the well-being of the McMaster Student Community and the Student Assembly Award for Leadership. Olga's companion is Marilyn MacDonald, SOS and prayer partner is Lucy Thorson, NDS; companion of Selene is Gwen Legault, OLM and prayer partners are Jhon Vasquez and Johana Coronada.

Let us join together giving thanks to God for how Selene has opened her heart to allow God to work through her to assist others realize their potential.

We are so proud of you, Selene!
