

Prayer Service to Commemorate Refugee Rights

“REFUGEE RIGHTS DAY commemorates the April 04, 1985 Supreme Court Singh Decision – that the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms protects the right of refugee claimants in Canada to life, liberty and the security of person, and that claimants are therefore entitled to an oral hearing. Yet, as we celebrate this anniversary, the one nagging image that continues to haunt us is the reflection of refugees who continue to endure in silence because of social resistance to recognize the anguish, isolation and vulnerability of refugees or the breaking of the promise that Canada is indeed a safe haven for those who are persecuted. On April 04, REFUGEE RIGHTS DAY let us recognize that forty years since the Singh Decision, we must continue our active stand in the fight for the basic human rights of our refugee sisters and brothers.”

OPENING PRAYER:

Gracious God,
You called Sarai and Abram to find a home in a new land.
You welcomed the outsider and made them family.

We know their story, for it is our story.
Our families, many of them,
fled violence and oppression on every continent.
And You gave us Your own Son as a refugee from violence.

Following Your example, help us make the story of the immigrant, the slave,
the refugee, and outsider part of our own story.

Today, your children still seek new homes, long for freedom, hope for welcome and need protection.
Help us, most gracious God, to recognize one another as neighbour. Amen

SCRIPTURE: Matthew 26: 36

“Then Jesus went with his disciples to a place called Gethsemane, and he said to them, “Sit here while I go over there and pray.” He took Peter and the two sons of Zebedee along with him, and he began to be sorrowful and troubled. Then he said to them, “My soul is overwhelmed with sorrow to the point of death. Stay here and keep watch with me.”

REFLECTION: "SCAPEGOATING THE "FOREIGNER" (RICHARD ROHR'S DAILY MEDITATION)"

"Karen González, an immigrant advocate, points to the story of Joseph in Genesis 37 as an example of God's love and protection for foreigners:

[Joseph] suffers a series of misfortunes as a vulnerable foreigner. Joseph's story is powerful and effective because it raises questions about the goodness of God in the midst of suffering. It also depicts the human tendency to alternate between loving and fearing strangers. In his story we see the Egyptian society's movement from fear to love and then back to fear again....

Without recourse, as an enslaved person in a foreign land, Joseph does not receive due process. Instead, he is thrown into jail for a crime he didn't commit. The unknown narrator of Genesis states that God always sees Joseph and remains with him. Twice within the span of three verses we are told that "the Lord was with" Joseph, blessing his work and giving him favor with those in authority over him (Genesis 39:21–23)... Nonetheless, he spends years unjustly imprisoned, largely forgotten by his foreign captors...."

This must be an awakening: we are all called to be sisters and brothers with and for each other!

PERSONAL/COMMUNAL REFLECTION:

- Hearing and listening to what is happening to forcefully displaced people throughout our world, what is most clear to me at this moment is ...

RESPONSE FOLLOWING REFLECTION: ("THE SERVANT SONG" GATHER #669)

Brother, sister let me serve you.
Let me be as Christ to you.
Pray that I might have the grace
To let you be my Christ-light, too.

We are pilgrims on a journey.
We are [companions] on the road.
We are here to help each other
Walk the mile and bear the load.

I will hold the Christ-light for you
In the night time of your fear.
I will hold my hand out to you;
Speak the peace you long to hear.

I will weep when you are weeping.
When you laugh, I'll laugh with you.
I will share your joy and sorrow
Till we've seen this journey through.

When we sing to God in heaven,
We shall find such harmony
Born of all we've known together
Of Christ's love and agony.

EVERY HUMAN HAS RIGHTS

Suggestions for Action:

- Learn about the culture and background of a refugee.
- Promote the benefits and successes of refugees in your community.
- Watch: †Francisco Rico-Martinez on the Singh decision

- Read: Canada will cancel thousands of refugee claims under new retroactive law

The time is here, the time is now.
We can change things.
Give the earth your dream for harmony;
she is waiting for you, waiting for me.

Show the earth you care about her future,
melt the walls of hate and fear that keep us apart.
Believe we can live together as friends of the earth.

So be the reason, be the hope for others to believe that the earth is meant for beauty, goodness and peace, and that our God of love is God of the Earth's one family.

CALL TO ACTION:

What is one action God is inviting you to undertake?

OUR FATHER

FINAL BLESSING:

GRACIOUS GOD, NO ONE IS A STRANGER TO YOU.

In Your providential kindness, watch over all forcefully displaced people, all those separated from their loved ones and all those who have had to flee war and violence to seek safety and freedom for themselves and for their families. Bring them safely to the place where they long to be and TOGETHER may we be Christ-light for others and for our earth.

We ask Your blessing through Jesus, the Risen One. Amen.
